Ordination Anniversary

On Sunday, May 18 1975 Metropolitan Archbishop Stephen Kocisko ordained Father James Spontak and classmate Father Richard Lambert to the Presbyterate at Saints Peter and Paul Church, in Warren, Ohio. The ordination took place on Pentecost Sunday in 1975. In subsequent years, May 18 has been an occasion to give thanks to God for this grace and also to pray for a renewal of the gift of the Holy Spirit in this vocation and ministry.

A variety of ministries and assignments have followed over these past fifty years—parish administration; seminary education and formation; chaplain for religious sisters; pursuing additional studies in Rome. These have taken place in different localities and circumstances.

During these past twenty years, the prayers, encouragement, support and patience of parish communities in Beaverdale, Dunlo, Portage, and South Fork have been a valued and cherished dimension of my vocation in the priesthood. Thank you for your trust, and for the opportunities and challenges of these years serving with you in the Byzantine Catholic Church.

Pope Leo XIV: Today we join in prayer with the Church throughout the world for Pope Leo XIV with the formal inauguration of his ministry as the Bishop of Rome and successor of the Holy Apostle Saint Peter.

Many, happy years!
